Trillium Twirl

Come join us for our 28th annual MDH Spring Dance Weekend!

Headliners

Sarah VanNorstrand returns to us from New York State, and we are delighted! Sarah calls a wide variety of contras, squares and party dances. She enjoys working with everyone from new dancers to decades-long contra veterans. Her goal is to assure the dancers have as much fun as she does! Sarah loves dancing and music, and strives to communicate that enthusiasm in her calling.

We're very pleased to present Changeling for your contra dancing pleasure! Changeling presents the fire and stark beauty of the Celtic traditions with (in the words of one fan) "the power of ten in a package of two." They travel from concert halls to dance halls, delighting fans and winning friends with their tunes, songs and stories.

Michigan Music Makers Earl Gaddis, from Plainwell, is a full-time dance musician who has been playing violin and viola for various combinations of English, Scottish, American, and international dancing for more than fifty years, in the U.S., Canada, and abroad.

Plus calling and even more music from some of Michigan's favorite contra and English dance performers!

Location & Venue

Clear Lake Camp is located near Dowling, MI about 16 miles north of Battle Creek on M-37. The large woodland setting offers hiking, up-close nature observation and canoeing. There are two beautiful wooden dance floors in the main lodge, and the dining room looks out over Clear Lake. Lodging is provided in two bunkhouses. Each bunkhouse has two sets of hot showers and bunk beds in large rooms for men-only, women-only, and coed for couples. Tent and RV sites are available, but no electrical or water hookups.

Residential Dance Camp = Great Value!

Our full registration fee covers it all: lodging Friday & Saturday nights, meals from Saturday breakfast through Sunday lunch, coffee, hot cocoa, tea, snacks, fruit - and all dances & workshops with great musicians and wonderful callers!
